

Lorie A. Goeser is an Independent Clinical Supervisor, Clinical Substance Abuse Counselor, Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant with 30 plus years of providing direct services with consumers for behavioral and physical health needs. Ms. Goeser has been involved with counselor development including direct supervision, training, development of and oversight of state statutes related to substance abuse service providers/agencies. Ms. Goeser has personal experience as a personal caregiver, home health provider and behavioral health provider during her tenure. Ms. Goeser has been a board member of the former WI Certification Board, DSPS Substance Abuse Advisory Board, Rebalanced-Life Wellness Association and Wisconsin Association of Treatment Courts Professionals. Ms. Goeser's work experience includes being a DHS criminal justice specialist, DHS emergency behavioral health grant administrator and private consultant to assist agencies in developing processes within agencies and professional growth for providers. Ms. Goeser is committed to lifelong learning and sharing to promote growth, resilience, acceptance, equity and humanity for people involved in and the systems themselves in the areas of behavioral health, physical health, justice and wellness systems.