Student’s Rights as a College Student

- To have “reasonable accommodations”
- To participate in all school activities
- To expect respectful treatment from all faculty/staff
- To report any issues with services

Student’s Responsibilities as a College Student

- Meet with faculty to discuss needs and accommodations
- Comply with college’s policies and procedures
- Apply for services in advance
- Notify student services of schedule changes
- Report any accommodation concerns
- Show respect for peers, staff and faculty
- Meet the school’s graduation requirement

Faculty’s Rights

- To determine course content and methods of teaching
- To make decisions about how best to adapt their teaching to accommodate ALL students
- To ensure that standards are not lowered or compromised
- To fail a student if he/she does not do well
- To be respected by all students in his/her classroom

Faculty’s Responsibilities

- Provide reasonable accommodations
- Show respect and confidence in students’ abilities to do well
- Discuss all student-related information directly with the student involved
- Enforce the Code of Student Conduct equally for all students

What are Accommodations?

Northcentral Technical College Disability office offers services to support students with disabilities in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Accommodations may include the following: advocacy, early registration, sign language interpreters, speech software, alternative format texts and tests, extended test time, accessible classroom materials, adaptive equipment, separate test site and other services all to provide equal access.